EXHIBITION DAYS=View Time for Spring Styles, for Easter Arrays

With open doors and our best on show we are ready to introduce you to the beauties of our style parade. The first season of a new epoch, its creations stand unique and unrivalled—exponents along certain lines of effects never attempted before. It might surprise you if you knew how much planning and forethought has been given to this gathering. How we have reached out in the producing world from centre to circumference to grasp the newest, the prettiest, and the best to heighten our success and make our showing one of usefulness to you. Here are fabrics in profusion from every good source, each suited by weave or design to some tasteful new-century vogue. Here is a prodigious wealth of exquisite shades and tints as dainty as spring's first flowers, as refreshing, as clear-colored. Here are goods to mark this Easter time in many a memory. A little circumspection here and every woman can look her loveliest. Let us show them when you can, the sooner the better. Success makes favorites of those who first seek it. Others from good and better to best—the latter exclusive—one-of-a-pattern kinds—$1.25 to $15 each.

Fine Muslin Underwear.

Skillfully made outputs of highly reputable makers. Made as you'd make them for yourself; painstakingly and of best materials. Saving all the time and labor and a big part of the price.

REBECCA HARRIS GIVEN ONE YEAR

Sent to the Penitentiary for Stealing Fifty-Two Dollars.

CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.

Mr. R. M. Robertson Not a Candidate—Birth Day Party—News Personal and Brief Items of Manchester.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, No. 1122 Hall Street. Rebecca Harris (colored) was tried in the Hustings Court of Manchester yesterday afternoon on the charge of stealing $52 from Mr. E. C. Ford last December. The jury found Rebecca guilty and fixed her punishment at one year in the State penitentiary. John Jackson, charged with being an accomplice in the crime, was acquitted. It was charged that Jackson received the money from Rebecca. Mr. Harris Smith appeared as attorney for Jackson. THREE CHILDREN BURNED. News reached the city yesterday of the burning of the home and three children of Willie Hudson (colored), on the Middleman turnpike, about five miles from the city. The fire broke out about 11 o'clock, from an unknown cause, while the family slept, and before aid could reach them three children—the oldest of a family of five—were burned to death. Hudson, his wife and two children escaped with their lives, but lost all their property. The house is said to have belonged to Hudson, who is a hard-working and respectable colored citizen. He has a brother, Charlie Hudson, driver for R. A. Bowen, in this city. MR. ROBERTSON TALKS. Mr. R. M. Robertson, who has been urged by his friends to become a candidate for the Constitutional Convention, when asked yesterday morning concerning his plans, said:

"I see my friends are circulating a petition, asking me to announce myself a candidate for the Constitutional Convention. While I feel deeply gratified to my friends in thus honoring me, yet I must most respectfully ask them to desist from any such purpose, as I can, under no circumstances, become a candidate. For many reasons, but have given, and will continue to give, my undivided support to Judge John H. Ingram, and hope all of my friends will do the same."

Judge Thomas Miller, of Powhatan county, was in the city yesterday morning. In speaking of the representatives of the district in the Constitutional Convention, the Judge said Powhatan was solid for Judges Ingram and Hancock. There will be no candidate for the convention from Powhatan, as both Ingram and Hancock are favorites with the people of that section.

BIRTHDAY PARTY. Miss Nola Claiborne gave a birthday party at the residence of Mr. J. W. Smith, No. 109 East Eighth Street, Monday night. The guests were: Misses Nola Claiborne, Alma Marklin, Ruby Price, Inez Clary, Sarah Wright, Lottie Saunders and Mamie Smith, Rev. H. T. Musserman.

There was music by Professor Kenchloe and Mr. John Garber and Mr. Howlett. The gentlemen present were Messrs: Tom Wright, Henry Wright, Eddie M. Burruss, Henry Carter, Louis Miller and Griffin. PERSONAL AND BRIEF. Mr. Emmett W. Turpin is confined to his home, on Porter Street, with an attack of the grip. He is somewhat better. Mr. T. C. Maddox, formerly with J. C. Snelling, is visiting in the city. There has been much complaint recently on account of the darkness at Eighth and Decatur Streets, where there has been no electric light for the last few nights. Rev. John Pollard will preach at Cowardin-Avenue Christian Church to-night. Mr. S. L. Mims, a valued employee of the Richmond Cedar-Works, has accepted a position with the Virginia Cedar-Works as foreman, at Norfolk, Va. His many friends wish him much success. In to-day's paper Captain John O'Brien announces his candidacy for re-election to the City Council from the Fourth Ward. The candidacy of Mr. Waverly Nunnally from the First Ward is also announced.

Disposes of Other Cases.

The decision of the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Board of Commissioners of Wilkes county et al., appellants vs. W. N. Coles & Co., appellants, holding the bonds of the said county to be invalid, disposes of two other cases which are now pending here on a petition for re-hearing in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, namely: The cases of Stanley County, N. C., appellant, vs. W. N. Coles & Co., and Board of Commissioners of Oxford, N. C.; J. C. Briggs, Mayor, et al., plaintiffs in error, vs. Union Bank of Richmond, Va., defendant in error.

DR. MC'CAW RETIRES.

Veteran Physician Decides to Give up His Practice. Dr. J. B. McCaw yesterday retired from the practice of medicine and surgery.

There is scarcely a person in Richmond who does not know and love Dr. McCaw, and he is especially beloved by the congregation of St. Paul's Church, of which he is senior warden. Dr. McCaw thus announces his retirement. Dr. J. B. McCaw having arrived at years of discretion and remembering that he has been a doctor of medicine for fifty-seven years, announces to the public that he goes on the retired list on and after this date. He would be ungrateful if he did not take this opportunity to return thanks to the good people of this community, who have shown their confidence in him and his forefathers, for four generations, from 1786 to 1901. To his dear old friends and patients, who still live, he can only say that his good wishes, his best advice and his tenderest sympathy will be at their service as long as life lasts.

FIGHT IN ORANGE.

Mr. Williams Won't Run, But Captain P. P. Barbour is in the Race.

There is a spirited contest on for the Democratic nomination for delegate to the Constitutional Convention from Orange. It was at first thought that Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Williams would be in the race, but he has declined to become a candidate, and Captain Philip P. Barbour has recently entered the contest. The aspirants in the field so far are Captain Barbour, Librarian W. W. Scott, and Colonel C. C. Tallafiero. They are all popular, and their friends are hard at work for their success. Next Monday will be court day and the County Committee is expected to meet and fix a date and plan for a primary election to choose a nominee. The fight will be a most interesting one, for all three of the candidates are well known both in and out of the county.

Quick Trip.

Mr. Tim Dwyer, a workman on the Lester-Street viaduct, in Fulton, while at work on the viaduct Monday afternoon about 3 o'clock, slipped and fell from his perch about 15 feet from the ground. Supreme Court of Appeals.

Clarke vs. Sleet's Administrator. Submitted. Julius Meyer's Sons vs. Fank. Argued by F. H. C. Cabell and L. O. Vendenburg for plaintiff in error and C. V. Meredith for defendant in error and submitted. The next cases to be called are Leavell and others vs. Smith's Executor and South Reanoke Land Company vs. Roberts.

Meet to Organize.

The newspaper carriers of Richmond will meet at Smith's Hall to-morrow night for the purpose of organizing a union.

Damage to the Monument. One section of the wire fencing around the Lee monument has been removed. This has made it easier for vandals to reach the pedestal. Many have placed their initials upon the granite and otherwise defaced the monument.

Skull Fractured.

W. A. Cottrell, who claims to be from Fort Lee, is at the City Almshouse, where he was removed yesterday morning from the First Police Station. He is suffering from a wound at the back of his skull, which is probably a fracture. He is doing fairly well, but has not been able to explain how he was hurt.
